You are invited to the Bushwalking NSW
August General Meeting Keynote Presentation:

From 50 to 300 members & 365 activities a year

On Tuesday 20th August, 2019 at Redfern Town Hall

Presenter: Bill Boyd – Past president of the Northern Rivers Bushwalkers Club

Bill will reveal how the Northern Rivers Bushwalkers Club have managed to grow their club in to a vibrant, thriving, active club today!

Bill will share the innovations, tips, and techniques that the Northern Rivers Bushwalkers Club (NRBC) used in their transformation including such topics as:

- Trusting members
- Sharing the load
- An open committee
- Committee positions
- Activity coordinators
- Buddying and training
- Understanding our audience
- How much expertise is enough
- The light touch
- Succession
- Awards and thanks

Today, the NRBC runs a variety of bushwalking, cycling, kayaking and abseiling activities each week in the NSW and beyond including trips across Australia and the world. NRBC also has an active social program, its own bush band, and club anthem!

Our presenter: Bill Boyd

Bill Boyd was president of the Northern Rivers Bushwalkers Club during their amazing transition.

Bill's day job is Professor of Geography at Southern Cross University and the University's Student Ombud.

Bill on his (walking) way from Hungary to Italy on the long-distance Hungarian Walk of Friendship and European Peace Walk.
