You are invited to the Bushwalking NSW Inc.
February General Meeting Keynote Presentation:

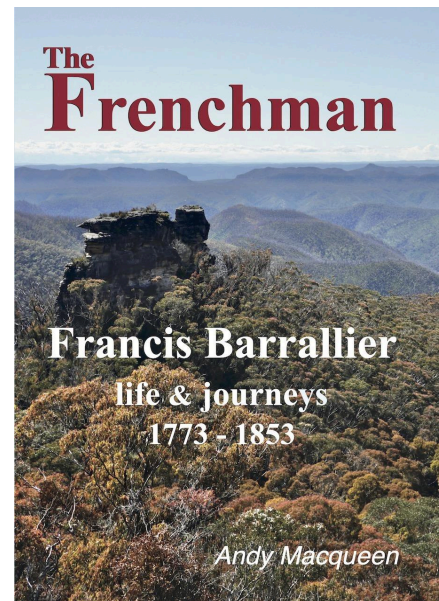

The Frenchman

To be presented by
Andy Macqueen OAM, Springwood Bushwalking Club

7:30pm Tuesday 18 February 2025 via Zoom –
Registration essential

What did the Frenchman Francis Barrallier get up to in 1802 and why does it matter?

Andy Macqueen will guide us on a unique 1802 expedition into the Blue Mountains, and invite us to think more about what went on and what that country stands for.

Our Speaker: Andy Macqueen OAM

Andy Macqueen is a past-president of Bushwalking NSW, a life member of Springwood Bushwalking Club, a remote-area conservation volunteer and a Blue Mountains historian. Andy holds an OAM and the Chardon Award.

Andy wrote the first biography of Francis Barrallier in 1993 after dragging Springwood club members out on numerous investigative bushwalks!

His exciting latest book “The Frenchman” is a fresh biography with new content and perspectives!
